

The intention of this song is to aide in creating a buzz around the fascinating film upcoming to be released October 23rd: SAW VII! ^_^ After I saw SAW V I left at the end of the movie on its then-opening day and on my hour and a half walk home, purchased a Veggie Pizza and couldn't stop thinking of a 'vocal song concept' the ever-awesome 'Charlie Clouser' theme-track: SAW. ^^

[SAW V I truly enjoyed by the way. However, thus-far, SAW 1 was still the very best to me. ^_^ Just something about 'The Dead Man' ["Jigsaw"] not really being a 'Dead Man' as the audience is lead to believe... and the 'SAW' Theme song slow-rising then blaring as the plot-twist slowly unfolds. ^^;]

To make a long story short, whilst I awaited my pizza to finish [around 11 at night mind-you ^^;] I finally decided to stop just 'Thinking of a potential tribute' and began to record some 'prototypes' into my cell phone. ...And they just wouldn't stop! XD

You best believe, I got my pizza and went walking down the streets of GA munching piping hot Veggie Pizza happy with the 'New Sea of Contents' recorded-to-phone... where they have stayed up until this very moment [Tuesday, September 29th, 2009—the day this passage was written. ^_^]

This song is tribute to Writer/Director James Wan [Yup! ^_^], Writer/Actor Leigh Whannell, Musician Charlie Clouser [OH YEAH! XD], Producers Gregg Hoffman, Oren Koules and Mark [Wal]Burg (just kidding—just 'Burg' ^^;) & All of Lions Gate Film Staff & Cast that made this film franchise happen! =D

As I write these very words, I listen to the original 16 Minute 39 Second SAW Theme by Charlie Clouser in dire anticipation of the upcoming film. =)

As I 'Moved' and 'Mixed' portions of this the original track for vocal support, I could not help but admire The intricate production and creative edge of the original MEGA AWESOME 'New Age/Alternative' track!

Go-Go Charlie Clouser!! =D

You forever have my respects as does your mother, father and your good-old-state, Hanover, New Hampshire [U.S.A. ! ^^] for supporting your childhood-to-now and graciously giving you birth! ^_^

The accompanying video is courtesy Lionsgate Films [RoRW!! ^^ Wait... that's MGM! XD Gates Open] (much Better... ^^;)

Please note that I am not making any money from this song. However, a great deal of time was spent [over a year! ^^] in shaping and forming out of 'Pure Passion' this tribute to a fine-film and unparalleled staff, cast & story that continues to intrigue me. ^_^

Please enjoy everyone! ^_^ [or not! XD]

And please do feel free to lemme know what you think! =D

[Even if your words are as painful as getting fingers-to-arms sliced in two as seen in SAW V... O_O;

Ow. Cries

ENJOY! ^_~*

P.S. This is the instrumentation remix only [hence the name]. The vocal version is currently in the works. =)
