The Face of A Nation

TIGER M

This Video Best Viewed At FULL SCREEN =)

What's New...

Never very political, I created this song to play at my dance sets as tribute to those who "feel the hype" of the elections every 4. =)

However... after creating the "track-meant-for-dance"
I got this series of 'interesting dreams' and this crazy "video vision."

So after a 'bit' of hard work [and stressing my CHEEKS off...breaking
A wall and shattering a game DVD in the process... (but that's another story... ^^);

Here it is! =)

The end 'product' came out to look something of a
'Digital History Museum' with comedy elements I'd guess ^^

Please enjoy! ^_^

I certainly see why so much is gotten out of these election... =)
So much goes into it! ^^

Until I spent time gathering the elements to create this visuals video

I never stopped to think about JUST HOW MUCH work goes into all the Counting of the ballots, the publicizing of the 'hopeful-to-be-presidents'
And all the gossip, strong opinions and debating this
4-year "Celebration" and "Contest of Determination" truly sparks! ^^

Then I got to thinking (and gathering) things that even the most cynical
Of We in North America to be proud of! ^_^ (and not so proud of...)
And just sorta went from there...

Please enjoy!
A lot of love went into 'cranking' this out! ^_^
(And this is but a 'hint' of things to come Wink)

Democrats, Republicans, Independents & Liberals Parties alike... Let's Party Together! =)

Enjoy the tunes and the visuals. ^~*

That's it for now! =)

As they say in Japan...

Jaa ne.
