Don't Fast-Forward Past The...

Forward! 😊

Sincerely & Seriously... I do not remember when all of this began.

I don't remember an 'exact year.'

But I will tell you this... it happened sometimes between the year I met my first romantic love and first began an 'official journal.' I was around 18 at the time... So let's see shall we? ^_^ Fumbles with fingers That would have been 6-years ago now [going on seven soon] back in late [11/04]-2003 when I first set-foot in a public school as a full-time "Learning Resident:" Darton College in Albany, Georgia.

I began both "Chapters of My Life" [Pen-Written Journals] as well as what I call the "Eternal Journals" [Typed Journals] between the two years spent at Darton.

Between 2002 [the year I entered the 2-year institute for what some desire to call 'Higher Learning.' Indeed—Life's lessons there were as great a teacher as any... Especially for me... a humble-home-schooler... as was she...] and 2004 [the year I marched for a degree I never-did see. I was told I was 3-credits short after salutations and congratulations... but I certainly not bitter about it. ^^; I believe that indeed all happens for a reason, and the event was created in Existence for some further purpose in Our Creator's Fantasy—Our Reality. 😊]

Memory of my now-forlorn 'Romantic Experience' and American-Italian gal-pal to this day remains 'platonic' and all-but went down the drain.

I love her—as I love you—my readers—and all of Existence.

However... this soul will not allow trust from her any longer.

Perhaps it is God and she who should receive thanks and so shall. 😊

Thank You.

Both of you...

All of you...

For inspiring this 'interaction...'

What The Fuck Is This Shit!?

I will tell you. ^^;

Please be patient...

Um... Okay Arms Slowly Crossed In Front of Chest TALK Mutha...!

Hmm... :/

As The Chemical Brothers and Beth Orton have so-well put it...

I certainly have taken the time to "Dig [My] Own Hole" [I hope not my grave! O.O]
But... "Where do I start... where do I begin..."

Hmm...

I know! =)

Well?

Death & Rebirth.

WTF!? O.O

There goes a theory of metaphysics which I find specifically intriguing.
It basically states that every milli-second... every moment we exist...
We actually 'pass.' That is... each moment—we live a 'new life' so to speak.

Um... Okay... Back To The Point "Genius" [Idiot <.<]...

What I am pressing to say...

Just Say It Already Damn It!

Blink Blink O.O

Okay. ^^;

Is that sometimes while walking alone—or up late at night thinking...
I get these... “Thoughts” like anyone else.

I won’t get into my humble thoughts on how our lives/Existence works just yet...

Eye Roll* Thanks For Sparing Us The Details—Looser...

...I would appreciate it some wouldn’t be negative.

WHATEVER!

Thank You.

Sighs

Now... where was I?

Oh yes.

I get these “Thoughts” that are either ‘bits-and-pieces’ of a movie, video game, song or some other work I currently have in mind—or a work that I may later want to consider.

When I get these “Thoughts” [often sparked by a specific Situation & Inspiration] I get to thinking how to best capture these “Situational-Inspirational Moments.”

At first I thought perhaps I was going berserk
[Like the EVAs in Neon Genesis Evangelion, Guts or the 1980 video game! XDD].

However... after learning that there are those who this tends to happen to
[I won’t call any names right now ‘cause I’d have 40 pages of names should I start! XDD]

I felt... comforted.

And So...?

This is where I keep the thoughts that simply... 'come up.'

There are too many for me to apply to any given "Idea" or "Project" or "Work-of-art" so I decided to simply jump into the "Friendly World of Cyberspace" and Share! =)

I am blessed with a great deal of these often
[and thank "The Grandmaster" for this blessing everyday.
But errr... it can get to be annoying—even overwhelming at times... ^^;
I Love it! =D Wouldn't have it any other way ^~*]...

So there is truly...

No way that I can currently think to keep this portion of TIGERM.NET updated as swiftly as these 'bits of wit' sometimes [at least so seemingly...] SLAM the cranium! XDD

I don't think of these.
"The Situations" themselves kind of...
Do.

Really though... I don't know how to say it right now...
So I'm just going to 'lay-low' until I can.

Cool? Okay?
Enjoy! ^_~*

Sincerest & Most Humble Regards,
Forever In Love,

 Alternatively ***

TM Quote

“Racism is not a concern if one is not a Racist.”

-Tiger M. Gales, Thought while walking past Langdale Ford
- 2006 or Before

Note – In other words, if one is not biased about how a person looks [including herself or himself] then the ‘Issue of Racism’ is less an ‘Issue’ so much as it simply is the ‘mental state of select individuals.’ A ‘neutral stance’ is easy to take when one accepts this often seemingly ‘unfair attribute’ [of humanity as a whole] as but another ‘Ingredient of Human Diversity.’ In my humble opinion—a negative aspect of ‘Human Diversity’ but is just as much a ‘State of Mind’ as one’s own personal beliefs of ‘here’ in general—or what flavor of ice cream the neighbor enjoys.

Become.

- 2006 or Before

51. TM Quote

“In a way... Slavery in America was a blessing.

Although forceful and inhumanly cruel;

It placed American-Africans into the “Arena of America.”

The act took Africans from Africa to America and has since allowed American-Africans

To build, grow, and thrive with this controversial, yet Great Country.

To date, the Greatest Country known since “The Roman Empire.”

-Tiger M. Gales, On Slavery in America

-Saturday August 19, 2006

Note – Seems [to me] a ‘Time Machine...’ in the “Grand Scheme” of Our Creator’s Story [Existence].
With our very own ‘Neighbor Latin Population’ having issues getting into ‘The States...’ how hard does one think it would prove to be for an African to today to achieve “U.S. Citizenship?” It would appear that for some North Americans, pains of the past may prove as blessings of today. A humble-personal opinion.

52. TM Quote

“I do not believe in ‘nothing.’

Even if it can’t be seen—there is always... ‘something.’”

-Tiger M. Gales, On “Nothingness”

“If it were not for slavery in the past,

We would not be in a position to debate over racism nor fight it in the present.”

Quote Note – 1st Suggestion: For a better understanding, see movie: Hotel Rwanda.

- 2006 or Before

54. TM Quote

“Read the book [rules]? Of course I ‘read the book.’

I have to know which roles to break in order to stay progressive!

-Tiger M. Gales, On “Doing Things By The Book” [Trait of Typical “Beaver” Personality Type]

- 2006 or Before

“The #1 Problem For “Sad People” is

“Happy People...” and Vice Versa.”

56. TM Quote

“A pest is any creature, object, or task that thwarts or

Slows down one’s road to progress or ‘invades personal space.’”

-Tiger M. Gales, On Pests

Note – These [pests] hardly at all... if at all... exist to me.

There is lesson to be learned from any living thing or aspect in Our Reality

In this soul's most humble opinion. ☺

-Tiger M. Gales
- 2006 or Before

57. TM Quote

“Do not worry about what others will do to you—

Make others worry about what you will do.”

-Tiger M. Gales, On “Your Concern”
- 2006 or Before

“No “one” and no “thing” is God.

God is everyone and all things.”

“24 hours a day; 7 days a week; 365 days a year;
3,650 days a decade; 100 years a century.”

-Tiger M. Gales, On “Measuring Definition of Time”
- 2006 or Before

62. TM Quote

“In this world, our homes reflect our state of being.

Inside our world, there are houses...

And inside our houses, there are rooms...

Inside our rooms, there are closets...

And inside our closets, there are secrets.”

-Tiger M. Gales, On “Reflections of Our State of Being [i.e. “Existence”]
- 2006 or Before

Note – Inspired by thinking of the meaning behind the term that is so often used within the “Public Arena” when labeling an individual’s “perceived hidden sexuality...” [whether it be true or not].

63. TM Quote

“One knows that Passion is the drive when Progress is

No longer the "Driven Focus."

-Tiger M. Gales, On "Passion For A Thing"
- 2006 or Before

Alternatively

TM Quote

“One knows that one is passionate about a thing when progress

Is no longer the "Driving Focus."

“In our society, age is not a factor for flirtation; only sexual activity is.

There is no harm in making one feel good about herself or himself

Or relaying a sincere compliment in a playful manner.”

-Tiger M. Gales, On “Flirtation”

- 2006 or Before

Note – The day this inspiration struck, I was working at Fun Factory...

Everything’s a fucking game!

Do it different or all the same, but everything's a fucking game!”

85. TM Quote

"While even numbers share a twin;

Odd numbers have a center."

-Tiger M. Gales, On "Number Fun"

Note – With “1,” this is still true. “1” itself is the “center” of itself, and ultimately, all odd numbers have the number “1” as a center.” For example, “653” when spread out has “652” even numbers, and but “1” “Center” number that “Powers” the other “652” numbers” (or vice versa, the 652 numbers power that “1” center number that makes up “653”).

89. TM Quote

"People who have come to know "Success" are often generous and do not mind taking the time to help "others" given they believe in the "Other's Cause." However, those who are ravenous for a mere "Taste of Success" often desire to get to "Success" through the "Potential Success" of "Others;" feeding from them as ferocious wolves a day's kill. These "Desperate Individuals" will often drag the "Others" down; bound the "Others;" and burn the "Others along with themselves."

-Tiger M. Gales, On "'Dedication To Success' Vs. 'Desperation For Success'"

- 2006 or Before

90. TM Quote

"As long as we're liked, We feel fine.

-Tiger M. Gales, On "Human Reaction To Action"

- 2006 or Before

91. TM Quote

"The common mistake made about love & romance is that it does not "complete" woman or man. The true purpose to love & romance is to enhance a joy [a self love] already completed! If both partners do their full share and enjoy their own life 100%; the joining of those two souls will be 200% happiness."

Note – To me... ‘Happiness’ is a decision. ‘Joy’ is brought upon by deciding upon Happiness...

"Do not let plans be the only rule of thumb.

In any system, there are almost always alternatives and exceptions.

In Existence, the “Real World” [Real Life], We are often obliged to "play" in "Real Time."

I may age, but I may die long before ever becoming old."

"One does not necessarily have to be verbal in order to learn the answer to a question.

Curiosity can be satisfied through any of four other senses: looking, feeling, tasting, or smelling."

96. TM Quote

“In most cases, when a thing is severed or broken—be it for better or for worse—it can never be the same. The object, work, or being, may be similar to its “Original State” but seldom ever can or will it be exactly the same. This is true for something as vital as a piece of the body being cut out and removed to something as "simple" as removing or replacing a single note in a song; something as "major" as the breaking of a heart or as "minor" as a romp with a well-paid whore.”

97. TM Quote

“To the common, "The Unexplainable" is a scary thing.

To the curious, "The Unexplainable" may open

An intriguing doorway to a worthwhile experience that inspires explanation.”

-Tiger M. Gales, On "The Mystery of the "Unexplainable"

Note – In other words, a trip into the unknown by a courageous [or not so courageous] individual will often inspire ‘tales ‘unheard of before.’ [At least until those stories are told. ^^];

“'As Good As Done' is never ‘Done’ until it is 'Completely Done.'”
